

Hands & Voices will be taking a pause during July and August while everyone is busy enjoying the sunshine and warmth with family and friends.

*** Fall Gatherings *****

Saturday, September 24 @ 11:00 A.M.

Sam Mazza's Farm Market, Colchester

The fun includes a hay ride out to the pumpkin patch, petting zoo and play structure. From 12:00-3:00 P.M. is the 10th Annual Giant Pumpkin Weigh-in!

<http://www.sammazzafarms.com/festivals.shtml>

Saturday, October 29 @ 10:30 A.M.

'The purpose of the Parent Infant Program and exploring the IEP process', Fletcher Free Library, Burlington.

Please join us to listen to speakers Camilla Strauss, Parent Infant Coordinator and Consultant with the Nine East Network, and Leslie Johnson, certified Teacher of the Deaf, share their knowledge with time for questions after.

We would like to offer child care for this event so if you know of someone who would like to donate an hour or two of their time to spend with some wonderful children, please let me know. Also, if you would like the event interpreted, please let me know as well.

Be sure to find us on Facebook and check out our amazing website <http://vthandsandvoices.wix.com/vtchapter>

Please remember Hands & Voices is always accepting new members and we still are looking to fill a few board positions if you are interested!

Happy summer and see you in the fall!

Terese Urban
Hands & Voices