

Never let yourself or your staff be hesitant to ask someone, “Do you feel safe at home?”

Attend the next
Healthy Moms, Happy Babies training

This Futures Without Violence universal education curriculum is intended for home visitors and provides domestic violence training and education. In addition, the training promotes collaboration among home visitation, domestic violence programs, and health care providers, with the goal of supporting home visitors to more effectively assess and respond to domestic violence and counsel clients on healthy relationships.

When: Monday April 16, 2018 from 8:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.
Where: McFarland Building (Penthouse), 5 Perry Street, Barre

Presented by your Washington County training team:
Jennifer Auletta, Lorna Corbett,
Catherine Harris and Meg Kuhner

For more information or to register, contact Jennifer Auletta at 262-3292 x135 or jennifera@fcwcvt.org
by Friday April 6th

This training is supported by Circle, Family Center of Washington County, the Family Services Division, and Division of Maternal and Child Health at the Vermont Department of Health